"...act like men,..." 1 Corin 16:13 (NASB)

1. In the context of living a life in Jesus, what do the four key verbs in 1 Corinthians 16:14 namely "be alert", "stand firm in the faith", "be a man", and "be strong" mean to you?
2. Jesus in Matthew 26:41 reminded his three sleeping disciples that "the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak". What do you see in your life where the "spirit is willing", but you fail to carry through because "the flesh is weak"?
3. "Redeem the time" was Paul's command in Ephesians 5:16. Individually in our worklife (if still working), family and social life, what else can we quickly do to ensure we make the most of the precious time God gave us?
4. Why is it important that love should form the basis for all the things we do for our family, our loved ones, and for people in our community?
