

19-Feb-2023 | Discussion Questions
God's People of Faith | Romans 3:21-31 | Bro. Seng Guan

- 1) a. Can you unpack this statement, "the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law"? (v21)

b. In what way do the Law and Prophet bear witness to (1.a)? (v21)

c. How important is "the righteousness of God" to a believer?

- 2) a. Define "justification." How does justification relate to "the righteousness of God"?

b. On what basis can a sinner be justified?

- 3) What does 'propitiation' mean? (v25) Why is it necessary for our salvation?

- 4) a. "This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins"? (v25a) What is the Apostle Paul trying to say?

b. How does God "show" or "demonstrate" his righteousness through Jesus Christ?

- 5) a. How does the Gospel uphold the law? (v31)

b. Should a Christian keep the law since we are saved by grace?

c. How do these passages impact how we share the Gospel and the way we worship?