

30-July-2023 | Discussion Questions
God of Love, The Personal God | Romans 16:1-27 | Pr. Wallace Ong

1. Read Romans 16:1-2.
 - a) The word describing Phoebe can be accurately translated either as servant or deaconess. How were the members of the church in Rome to receive her?

 - b) How were they supposed to help her?

 - c) What do you learn from these verses?

2. Read Romans 16:3-5.
 - a) What did Prisca and Aquila do for Paul the apostle?

 - b) What was going on in the home of Prisca and Aquila?

 - c) What do you learn from these verses?

3. Read Romans 16:6-15.
 - a) What were some of their (people greeted by Paul) contributions being remembered by apostle Paul?

 - b) Do you see any common theme among the greetings?

 - c) What would you want to be known for?

 - d) What steps have you taken to get there?

4. Read Romans 16:17-19.
 - a) What warning did Paul give to the church in Rome 16:17?

 - b) How were these men like (Romans 16:18)?

 - c) What does Paul say is the motive of those who bring division?

 - d) What is the antidote to these divisions?

 - e) What do you learn from these verses?

5. What good thing did Paul hear about the church in Rome (Romans 16:19)? What do you learn from this verse?

6. Read Romans 16:20-27. The Doxology: What is the “mystery” that was kept secret but has now been disclosed through the prophetic writings?

7. How has this year’s study of Romans impacted you personally? Your faith? The living out of your faith?

Pray for one another:

List at least two changes you desire to take place in your life because of these verses and pray for one another.

- a.

- b.