15-Oct-2023 | Discussion Questions Biblical Church Leadership | Bro. Seng Guan

1)	a. Is there any difference between secular leadership and biblical leadership? (list the contrast based on your understanding.)
	b. Read Matt 20:25-28. What did Jesus teach about Christian Leadership? How difficult is it to use these principles in the day-to-day leading of the Church?
	c. Do you think it is possible to use Christian leadership principles in the secular world? How?
2)	a. Read Acts 6:1-7. What do you think of the leadership of the Apostles? (The way they handle the complaint and working toward a solution)
	b. How do we mimic the Apostles' leadership strength in our local context? (Any suggestion)

3)	a. Read Heb 13:17 and Acts 15:22. What can you learn about how the Church and the Church's leadership should work together?
	b. Is there any way we can minimize church conflict between the Church and the Church's leadership?
4)	a. Read Matt 25:14-30. What is your understanding of this text? What are the key ideas that Jesus wants to communicate to His disciples?
	b. Are these texts directed to leaders or all believers? Can we be fruitful believers without taking on an official leadership role? How?
	c. Usually, what stops us from responding to God's calling when it involves leadership roles? What can we do to overcome it?
