

14-January-2024 | Discussion Questions
Go! The Call to Missions and Ministry | Romans 15:14-24| Dr. Will Brooks

1. What does Paul mean by the phrase “that the offering of Gentiles may be acceptable”?
2. And how does the phrase above affect how all believers should think about God’s call on their lives?
3. When you think about your own life, would you describe your greatest accomplishments as something you’ve done?
4. In what ways were the things you mentioned something that Christ accomplished through you?
5. As we consider the desire to proclaim Christ where he has not been named, what part can you play in that work?
6. How should you equip yourself for the ministry to which God has called you?

For further reading:

<https://enduringword.com/bible-commentary/romans-15/>