

1-Sept-2024 | Discussion Questions God's Glory is Everywhere | Psalm 19 | Bro. Seng Guan

Objective: This message aims to lead Christians to declare the glory of God, fear him and live by his instructions, and ask him for help to overcome sin and express their desire to please him.

roposition: Christians should proclaim the glory of the LORD because the heavens are declaring his ory; fear the LORD and live by his instructions so they can experience his transforming power; and esire to please the LORD and ask him to help them with sin because he is their Rock and Redeemer.
1) Read Ps 19:1-	1) Read Ps 19:1-6 and Rom 1:18-20.
a. What is yo	ur understanding of "the glory of God"? How do you define it? (v1)
b. In what wa	ay do the heavens declare the glory of God? Can you share some examples? (v1) ne general knowledge of God is made available to everyone. How do you explain deny the existence of God (Atheist) or claim that they know nothing about God?
2) Read Ps 19:7-10
=	ist said God's law, statutes, precepts, commands, and decrees are good for us. nk this perspective reflects the majority of Christians' view about God's law?
b. Ps 19:7-9,	which verse(s) is most appealing to you? Why?

c.	In what ways can you seek to uphold the value of God's law as more precious than gold in	1 your life?

3)	Read Psalm 19:11-14

- a. What motives the psalmist to keep God's law?
- b. V14, "The LORD, my rock" What does it mean?
- c. Does knowing God's law help us to overcome sins? How? Please elaborate.
- d. What action can you take to make your thoughts and words more pleasing to God? How can you encourage others to do the same?
- 4) How does Psalm 19 challenge your current understanding of God's creation and His law? How does it shape the way you share the Gospel with non-believers?