

Chapters 6–12: The Gospel Spreads into Judea and Samaria

Acts 10

Context: Peter's vision of clean and unclean animals leads him to preach to Cornelius, a Roman centurion.

1. Peter had to unlearn lifelong religious traditions to eat with a Gentile. What personal, political, or cultural biases do you need to surrender to welcome others into God's family?
2. The Holy Spirit fell on the Gentiles before they were baptised, shocking the Jewish believers. When has God worked outside your theological comfort zone?
