Chapters 21–28: Paul's Arrest, Trials, and Journey to Rome

Acts 21

Context: Paul arrives in Jerusalem despite prophetic warnings of chains, and he is arrested in the temple.

1. Paul was ready not only to be bound but also to die for the name of Jesus.
   What limits, if any, have you secretly placed on your obedience to God?

2. To keep the peace, Paul agreed to participate in Jewish purification rites. When should you sacrifice your personal freedom or rights to maintain unity and avoid causing others to stumble?
